

Teaching by Non-Teaching Staff Appointments

Any person with a staff appointment who did not have teaching included as part of the original job description but who periodically teaches classes will be paid for teaching on the following basis:

1. Those who hold a staff position that is part-time (less than 75%) will be paid for the teaching on the Adjunct Teaching Salary Schedule.
2. Those who hold a staff position that is between 75% and 100% time will be paid on the Extended Adjunct Faculty Salary Schedule. At the point that the teaching moves them beyond 100%, they will be paid on the Faculty Overload Salary Schedule.
3. Those who hold a full-time staff position will be paid for the teaching on the Faculty Overload Salary Schedule.
